May consider treadmill purchase in the future- start with 2. Current treadmills are original to building. They have been phased out of PE and are solely for rehab and sport training at this time.

Coaches Request: Jacob Lucy boys soccer requesting a total of $10,607.00 for numerous things. A bench cover and structure, an elite whiteboard for coaching in the locker room, storage bins and rack, and a dozen soccer balls. Coach Lucy agreed to use his $500 allotment towards the soccer balls. The boosters motion to approve $7,767.00 for the bench cover and structure at this time. Approved by Jess Braunschweig-Norris, 2nd by Elissa Ladurini

Advanced weight shirts totaled $1,138.25 motioned to approve by Misty Johnson and 2nd by Kari Ford

Membership: No new members. Getting things ready in the next couple months for the 2026-27 membership drive.

Spirit Wear: Shirt for Julia for state bowling is done. Girls wrestling shirts got done and sold enough to offset our costs. Boys wrestling shirts are done, selling around 140 shirts. We are doing a 3peat wrestling state shirt design. Boys swim shirts were done and are ready for this weekend. Tennis designs are ready to be uploaded and spring store is getting ready for launch. Looking to change and improve the store website. Kari is at all the games and events she can be at and the little pop up stores are doing well. New cupboards are up in the store.

Social Media: Be sure to check out all the athletic things happening on the Southeast Polk Boosters Facebook page

New Business: Boys golf coach, Scott Powell, came to bring up concerns and questions centered around the Hall of Champions. After discussing the criteria to be entered into the Hall of Champions we as a booster club have decided to continue conversations in the future about maybe adding a Hall of Fame so that more athletes can be recognized for their achievements.

Looking to talk with some city officials of Pleasant Hill in hopes to potentially have Pleasant Hill host our HOCO parade for 2026.

Adjourn: Motion to adjourn the meeting at 7:30pm, motioned by Susan Whinery, 2nd by Elissa Ladurini

Next Meeting: TBD
